FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Are donations tax deductible for my yoga studio?

If your business makes a donation of $2 or more, it is fully tax deductible. Donations made by individuals attending classes at your studio are not tax deductible for your business.

Are donations tax deductible for students attending yoga sessions?

Yes, donations of $2 or more are tax deductible for the individual. You will receive a receipt book so that you may issue receipts to these individuals as you collect their donation.

What does the appreciation gift for my yogi's include?

We have put together a little gift bag that includes a small candle, a Pukka tea bag and a Thoughtfuls pop open card. This is our way to say thanks to all the yogis who are making a difference for patients and families in the Hospice.

Is there promotional collateral to help me promote my Hold it for Hospice event?

Yes, there are posters available online at marypotter.org.au/hold-it-for-hospice/ that you can download and display or share on social media. Printed posters are available from The Mary Potter Foundation. Please call us on 8239 0119 or email Jess at jessica.harford@marypotter.org.au.

How will the Foundation help promote my Hold it for Hospice yoga session?

When you register your event you will be invited to list your session as "open to the public". If you choose this option we will list your studio as a participating host on our website so other people in the community can join in.

We will also share your involvement on our Facebook page in the lead up to your scheduled yoga session. You can like our page at www.facebook.com/marypotterfoundation.

Does the event have its own hashtag?

Help us spread the word and join our virtual Mary Potter Hold it for Hospice event using #holditforhospice.

For any further information please contact Jess at The Mary Potter Foundation on 8239 0119 or by email at jessica.harford@marypotter.org.au.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
